

Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct (2018)

- CANON II Obligations to the Public
- CANON VI Obligations to the Environment
- Advise of impacts of projects on climate change, impacts of climate change on projects
- Design equitably for human health and well-being
- Design for resilience and adaptation

BRP: Disruption, Evolution and Change (May, 2019)

- Redefine HSW to include: climate change, resilience, human health
- Regulatory framework must move towards outcome-based codes and performance standards
- Everything must get to zero: new and existing building stock

Resolution for Urgent and Sustained Climate Action (June 2019)

- Until zero-net carbon practice is standard
- Prioritize urgent climate action as HSW issue
- Exponentially accelerate decarbonization of the built environment
- Multi-year strategy for education, practice, advocacy, and outreach
- Guidelines for Ethical Practice on Climate Action
- Revise Public Policies and Position Statements
- Adopt and implement recs of Blue Ribbon Panel

“AIA Declares Climate Emergency in Historic Resolution”

AIA Codes and Standards

The Virtuous Cycle of Voluntary Commitments and Code

